Dear Sir:

Please enter the following reply brief in response to the Examiner's Answer dated 31 July 2003. The reply brief is submitted in triplicate.

GROUPING OF CLAIMS

Claims 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 18, 19, and 20 are stated to be separately argued. The Examiner states that all of the claims stand or fall together because the appellant's brief does not include a statement that the claims do not stand or fall together and present separate reasons therefore.

The Board's attention is drawn to page 3 of the appeal brief setting out that the claims are separately argued. Claims 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 are subject to a novelty rejection. Thus, any difference in the claim language of claims 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 renders each claim separate from one another and from the stated novelty rejection.

Claims 8 and 18 depend from different independent claims and are separately argued at page 4 of the appeal brief. Claims 9 and 10 are separately argued at page 5 of the appeal brief. Claim 11 is separately argued at page 5 of the appeal brief. Claim 14 is separately argued at page 5 of the appeal brief. Claims 19 and 20 are separately argued at page 5 of the appeal brief.

The appellant does not accept the arguments of the Examiner in the Examiner's
